THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE BILAL NAZKI
and
THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE NOOTY RAMAMOHANA RAO

WRIT PETITION No.12886 of 2006

ORDER: (per BN,J)

The order passed by the respondent is challenged in this writ petition and the main ground of attack to the order is that the revisional authority did not provide a chance of being heard to the petitioner, although a specific request had been made to the revisional authority. This was further asserted in the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition. Curiously, this assertion has not been either admitted or denied by the respondent.

In this view of the matter, on this short ground, we allow the writ petition, set aside the order passed by the revisional authority and direct him to pass appropriate orders, after giving a chance of hearing to the petitioner. To avoid any further delay in the matter, we direct the petitioner to present himself before the revisional authority on 12.02.2007. The revisional authority shall hear him on that day, or give another date for hearing him, but in any case, shall decide the revision on or before 12.03.2007. There shall be no order as to costs.
